54. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs overtime wages to which Plaintiffs are entitled under the NYLL and the supporting New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

55. By Defendants' knowing or intentional failure to pay Plaintiffs overtime wages for hours worked over 40 hours per workweek, they have willfully violated NYLL Art. 19, §§ 650 et seq., and the supporting New York State Department of Labor Regulations.
56. Due to Defendants' violations of the NYLL, Plaintiffs are entitled to recover unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the action, and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest from the Defendants.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(Failure to provide wage notices)
(NY STATE)

57. Plaintiffs repeat, re-allege & reincorporate all allegations as though fully set forth herein.
58. Pursuant to the Wage Theft Prevention Act, New York Labor Law, §195, Defendants willfully failed to furnish Plaintiffs with a required notice containing the following information:
- i. the rates or rates of pay and basis thereof,
 - ii. whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission or other allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances;
 - iii. the regular pay designated by the employer in accordance with NYLL §191;
 - iv. the name of the employer;
 - v. Any “doing business as” names used by the employer;
 - vi. The physical address of the employer’s main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address, if different;
 - vii. The telephone number of the employer.
59. Defendants willfully failed to furnish Plaintiffs with an accurate statement of wages as required by NYLL §195(3), containing the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of the employee; name of the employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof; whether paid by hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; hour rate or rates of pay, and overtime rates of pay; the number of hours worked, including over time hours; deductions, allowances, and net wages.
60. Due to Defendants' violation of NYLL §195(1), Plaintiffs are entitled to recover from Defendants liquidated damages of $50 per workweek that the violation occurred, up to a maximum of $2,500, reasonable attorney fees, and costs and disbursements of this action, pursuant to NYLL § 198(1-b).

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Failure to pay wages)
NY Lab. Law §191

61. Plaintiffs repeat, re-allege & reincorporate all allegations as though fully set forth herein.

- 62. Under NYLL §191, an employer is required to pay an employee within one week of the services performed by the employee.
- 63. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs their wages as required by NYLL §191 by not paying all wages owed within the statutory time period.
- 64. Because of Defendants unlawful withholding of wages, Plaintiffs suffered harm.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Breach of contract)

- 65. Plaintiffs repeat, re-allege & reincorporate all allegations as though fully set forth herein.
- 66. Plaintiffs and Defendant established a contract for services by and through an employer-employee relationship.
- 67. Plaintiffs rendered services to Defendants under this contract.
- 68. Defendants breached the contract by not paying plaintiff the money for their services.
- 69. By Defendants breach, Plaintiffs suffered harm.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs seek the following relief:

- A. Unpaid overtime pay, and an additional and an equal amount as liquidated damages pursuant to the FLSA and the supporting United States Department of Labor regulations;
- B. Unpaid wages pursuant to NYLL Art. 19, §§ 650 et seq., and the supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations, and an additional and equal amount as liquidated damages pursuant to NYLL § 663;
